

Please join us for a very special event hosted by Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles in conjunction with Los Angeles City Councilmember Paul Koretz and Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust

Honoring and remembering Raoul Wallenberg
who saved more than 100,000 Jews during the Holocaust

Commemorating Raoul Wallenberg's 101st birthday
Monday, August 5th, 2013

9:00 am – Reception & refreshments

JFS { Freda Mohr Multipurpose Center 330 N. Fairfax Avenue, Los Angeles, California

10:00 am – Rededication Ceremony at Raoul Wallenberg Square (Beverly & Fairfax) Featuring testimonials by Hungarian Survivors saved by Wallenberg

FREE parking will be available at the CBS Lot on Fairfax. Fairfax Avenue Gate ONLY.

For more information, please contact JFS { Freda Mohr at 323.937.5900.

To learn more about Raoul Wallenberg, visit Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust Saturday - Thursday 10:00 am - 5:00 pm and Fridays from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm. Admission is free!

A family of services.
A family
that serves.

Jewish Family Service is a beneficiary of and United Way